

WRITING ENTICING JOB POSTINGS AND DESCRIPTIONS

Creating Job Postings and Descriptions to Attract Your Ideal Candidate

Job Posting vs. Job Description

A job posting is NOT a job description or task list. They each serve a different purpose. A job posting is the first contact you make with candidates to get them to engage with you.

TAILOR YOUR JOB POSTINGS TO THE AUDIENCE

Consider the demographic you are trying to attract regarding relative language, key details, and the posting outlet.

JOB POSTING CONSIDERATIONS

- ✓ Stick to traditional job titles
- ✓ Sell your Company's culture and value propositions
- ✓ Eliminate acronyms and abbreviations
- ✓ Avoid jargon, buzzwords, legalese, cliches and slang
- ✓ Proof read your posts
- ✓ Make it mobile and social media friendly

Job Descriptions

Writing job descriptions is an important step in planning your staffing programs. Job descriptions should give a brief overview of the role, how it relates to your company vision, an overview of key responsibilities, requirements and qualifications.

FORMATTING GUIDE

- ✓ Job title with an engaging opening line/statement to capture attention.
- ✓ Speak to how you stand out: culture, fun facts, accomplishments, etc.
- ✓ Highlight key responsibilities of the job – primary and secondary. Avoid "nook and cranny" tasks.
- ✓ Reporting relationship, location, and hours of work (FT, or PT), and physical demands.
- ✓ Be clear about how to apply and application deadlines.

COMPENSATION

Consider sharing compensation range for the job. This will help control the time spent with candidates who may not be open to job wages and manage compensation expectations prior to the interview process.

Get Creative to Attract Talent

01 MAKE IT REAL

Candidates are more likely to engage with a potential employer they feel a connection to. Showcase your people, a day in the life, the workplace culture, make it real.

02 POSTING METHODS

Rethink the conventional online job boards. Using different social media platforms, and different styles of social posts can be very effective. What method makes the most sense for your ideal candidate?

03 PROACTIVE RECRUITMENT

Offer open houses, meet and greets with current staff, and other fun networking events to allow potential candidates to see what you're all about.

04 NETWORKING

Connect with local community groups, high schools and colleges, and piggyback on existing events to get in front of ideal candidates.

PRO TIP

Work one-on-one with your local business enterprise center to create tailored workforce and recruitment strategies.

Your local small business development consultants are here to help guide you every step of the way from organizational structure, developing job postings and descriptions that engage your ideal candidates, and how to create successful recruitment campaigns.

Example 4: Coded job ad

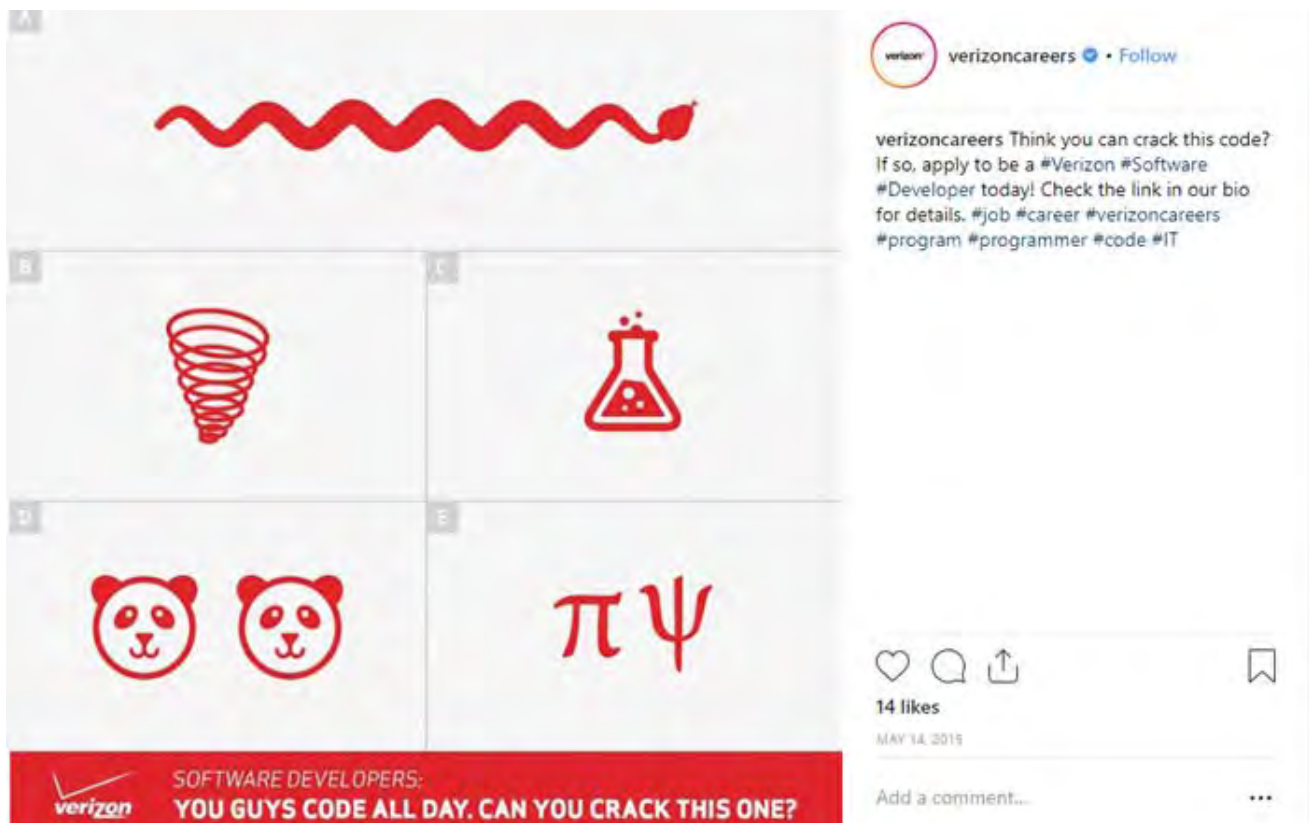

The job ad: Software developer

The company: Verizon

Why we like it:

We love this coded Instagram job ad by Verizon. They used a graphic to pose a challenge for their target audience in a playful and daring way.

Source: TalentLyft

The image shows a screenshot of an Instagram post from the account 'verizoncareers'. The post features a graphic with four panels labeled A, B, C, and D. Panel A contains a red wavy line. Panel B contains a red spiral. Panel C contains a red beaker with a flame. Panel D contains two red panda faces and the Greek letters π and Ψ . Below the panels is a red banner with the Verizon logo and the text: 'SOFTWARE DEVELOPERS: YOU GUYS CODE ALL DAY. CAN YOU CRACK THIS ONE?'. The Instagram post text reads: 'Think you can crack this code? If so, apply to be a #Verizon #Software #Developer today! Check the link in our bio for details. #job #career #verizoncareers #program #programmer #code #IT'. The post has 14 likes and is dated May 14, 2015.
